Joe Grandy Memorial Open Dart Tournament Sponsorship Information

Introduction

Thank you for considering sponsorship of the Joe Grandy Memorial Open Dart Tournament.

This event was formerly known as the Prince Rupert Open, and has been run annually since 1983. Renamed the Joe Grandy Memorial Open in 2013, in honour of Joe Grandy. Joe, along with his wife Annie, were key in ensuring that darts continued to be played competitively in Prince Rupert. They kept the Saturday night drop in darts alive for years and never missed a tournament.

Joe won numerous titles in mixed, men's doubles and singles as befitted a player of his quality. But he didn't win every time and this is where the true measure of the man could be judged. He was unfailingly gracious when he won and equally so when he was beaten, which wasn't often. He would be the first one up to chalk for the guy who just beat him too. That twinkle in his eye was there whether he won or lost.

Joe was a gentleman. He is sadly missed. The renaming of this tournament in his honour is recognition of the esteem that those privileged to have known him held him in and a way of remembering a fine player and an exceptional man.

This event has drawn participants from all across Northern British Columbia (Haida Gwaii, Fort Nelson, Prince George) as well as Southern Alaska.
